If these prospects have already bought an ebook from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do this by making a gross sales page for the brand new guide, but don't include a worth on that page. As a substitute, add a variety of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other technique is to test out prices by creating a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different prices on every page. Be certain your sales copy is exactly the same on every web page, and includes your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for each web page the conversion ratio between guests to your site and sales of your book. This can let you know what your optimum worth is.

In the end, if you've written a guide that solves a downside or presents a brand new approach, your book will usher in each visitors and profits.
